Subject: Entrepreneurs on the rise in Russia -- video and conference

Hello

In light of the recent wave of Russian investment and innovation news following the St. Petersburg International Economic Forum, I thought you might be interested in this insightful video interview on entrepreneurship in Russia with Victor Sedov, the president of the U.S.-Russia Center for Entrepreneurship. Mr. Sedov offers unique insight on how a new generation of homegrown Russian entrepreneurs can help grow and modernize Russia's economy for the greater good. The center is an initiative of the U.S.-Russia Investment Fund and has collaborated with Ernst & Young, Intel, Harvard and MIT, among other organizations.

You might also be interested to know that the center will host its annual conference, "Entrepreneurs as Leaders in Business and Society," this Thursday, June 23 in Moscow. The event offers a platform for participants to share best practices, network and foster entrepreneurship in Russia, especially among people under 30. Please keep an eye out for news coming out of this conference.

As a communications professional working on behalf of the Russian government, I would be happy to discuss the story of entrepreneurship's rise in Russia with you. I am also happy to put you in contact with Mr. Sedov, who spent several years working in the U.S. before returning to Russia to lead the center. Please let me know.

Thank you,

Anna
